SECTION III: RISK FACTORS

An investment in our Equity Shares involves a high degree of financial risk. Prospective investors should carefully consider all the information in the Draft Red Herring Prospectus, particularly the “Financial Information of the Company” and the related notes, “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on page 161, 111 and 250 respectively of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus and the risks and uncertainties described below, before making a decision to invest in our Equity Shares.

The risk factors set forth below are not exhaustive and do not purport to be complete or comprehensive in terms of all the risk factors that may arise in connection with our business or any decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Equity Shares. This section addresses general risks associated with the industry in which we operate and specific risks associated with our Company. Any of the following risks, individually or together, could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects, which could result in a decline in the value of our Equity Shares and the loss of all or part of your investment in our Equity Shares. While we have described the risks and uncertainties that our management believes are material, these risks and uncertainties may not be the only risks and uncertainties we face. Additional risks and uncertainties, including those we currently are not aware of or deem immaterial, may also have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

This Draft Red Herring Prospectus contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The financial and other related implications of risks concerned, wherever quantifiable, have been disclosed in the risk factors below. However, there are risk factors the potential effects of which are not quantifiable and therefore no quantification has been provided with respect to such risk factors. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the terms of the Issue, including the merits and the risks involved. You should not invest in this Issue unless you are prepared to accept the risk of losing all or part of your investment, and you should consult your tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences to you of an investment in our Equity Shares.

Materiality

The Risk factors have been determined on the basis of their materiality. The following factors have been considered for determining the materiality.

1. Some events may not be material individually but may be found material collectively.
2. Some events may have material impact qualitatively instead of quantitatively.
3. Some events may not be material at present but may be having material impact in future.

Note:

The risk factors as envisaged by the management along with the proposals to address the risk if any. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial implication of any of the risks described in this section.

In this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, any discrepancies in any table between total and the sums of the amount listed are due to rounding off. Any percentage amounts, as set forth in “Risk Factors” on page 24 and “Management Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on page 250 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus unless otherwise indicated, has been calculated on the basis of the amount disclosed in the “Restated Financial Statements”.

1. We significantly depend upon few of the raw material suppliers for our manufacturing activities. Volatility in the supply and pricing of our raw materials may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our production requires substantial amounts of raw materials which majorly includes Cold Rolled Grain Oriented (CRGO) Electrical Steel, Copper Wire, Copper Strip, Copper sheet and Aluminum Wire, Strip, Sheet, Mild Steel, Transformer Oil and Relays etc. which are subject to significant price volatility. The amount spent for the procurement of raw materials from our top ten suppliers, as a percentage of our total purchases, was 38.70% in Fiscal 2024, 43.59% in the period Fiscal 2023 and 53.07% in the period Fiscal 2022. Our cost of raw materials consumed for Fiscal 2024 was Rs. 25013.50 lakhs, which represented 75.23% of our revenue from operations, for Fiscal 2023 was Rs. 15441.25 lakhs, which represented 81.83% of our revenue from operations and for Fiscal 2022 was Rs. 12811.80 lakhs, which represented 86.20% of our revenue from operations. Our ability to remain competitive, maintain costs and profitability depend, in part, on our ability to source and maintain a stable and sufficient supply of raw materials at acceptable prices.

We do not have long term agreements with any of our raw material suppliers and we acquire such raw materials pursuant to our purchase orders. Raw material supply and pricing can be volatile due to a number of factors beyond our control, including global demand and supply, general economic and political conditions, tariff disputes, transportation and labour costs, labour unrest, natural disasters, competition, import duties, the outbreak of infectious diseases such as COVID-19 or currency exchange rates and there are inherent uncertainties in estimating such variables, regardless of the methodologies and assumptions that we may use. Further, discontinuation of such supply or a failure of these suppliers to adhere to the delivery schedule or the required quality could hamper our production schedule and therefore affect our business and results of operations.

There can be no assurance that demand, capacity limitations or other problems experienced by our suppliers will not result in occasional shortages or delays in their supply of raw materials. If we were to experience a significant or prolonged shortage of raw materials from any of our suppliers, and we cannot procure the raw materials from other sources, we would be unable to meet our production schedules for our key products and to deliver such products to our customers in a timely manner, which would adversely affect our sales, margins and customer relations. Any delay in the supply or delivery of raw materials to us by our suppliers may in turn delay our process of manufacture and delivery of products to our customers and this may have an adverse effect on our business, cash flows and results of operations. Additionally, our inability to predict market conditions may result in us placing supply orders for inadequate quantities of such raw materials. Therefore, we cannot assure you that we will be able to procure adequate supplies of raw materials in the future, as and when we need them and on commercially acceptable terms.

2. We may not be able to realize the amounts, partly or at all, reflected in our Order Book which may materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, reputation, profitability, financial condition and results of operation.

As of July 2024, our Company's has an order book of around Rs. 24996.05 Lakh at order value less amount billed representing manufacturing and supply of transformers and relay panels. The future earnings of our company are related to the successful production and delivery of the equipment in the order book, which may not be realized due to cancellations of orders or change in scope or schedule adjustments by customers. Moreover, factors beyond our control or the control of our clients may postpone the work order or cause its cancellation. Due to the possibility of cancellations or changes in scope and delivery schedule, resulting from our clients' discretion or problems we encounter during production process or reasons outside our control or the control of our clients, we cannot predict with certainty when, if or to what extent an equipment forming part of our order book will be produced and delivered. Delays in the production and delivery of the equipment can lead to clients delaying or refusing to pay the amount, in part or full, that we expect to be paid in respect of such purchase orders. Even relatively short delays or difficulties could result in our failure to receive, on a timely basis or at all, all payments due. This could have an adverse effect on our business operations, revenue and profitability.

3. Under-utilization of our manufacturing capacities and an inability to effectively utilize our existing manufacturing capacities could have an adverse effect on our business, future prospects and future financial performance.

As of date of Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we own and operate through our 2 manufacturing facilities located at Jaipur, Rajasthan with an aggregate installed production capacity of 4681 MVA per annum for manufacturing of transformers and 576 units per annum for Control relay panels. In Fiscals 2024, 2023 and 2022, our overall capacity utilization was as detailed below:

	Installed Capacity	Actual Production	%	Installed Capacity	Actual Production	%	Installed Capacity	Actual Production	%
Transformers (in MVA)	4681	3807	81	2705	1953	72	1955	1386	71
Control relay Panels (in Units)	576	416	72	486	346	71	452	298	66

Our capacity utilization levels are dependent on our ability to carry out uninterrupted operations at manufacturing facilities as well as on the market demand of the products sold by us. Among others, the capacity utilization also depends upon the availability of raw materials, labour, industry/ market conditions and procurement practice followed by our customers. In the event we are unable to achieve considerable capacity utilization of our current manufacturing facilities, it would result in operational inefficiencies which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results, financial condition and future prospects. Under-utilization of our manufacturing capabilities over extended periods, or significant under-utilization in the short-term, could materially and adversely impact our business, growth prospects and future financial performance.

4. We are subject to strict performance requirements, including, but not limited to, quality and delivery, by our customers, and any failure by us to comply with these performance requirements may lead to the cancellation of existing and future orders, recalls or warranty and liability claims.

We are engaged in the manufacturing and supply of critical and complex products which are required to meet precise and specific requirements including in terms of quality, measurements and tolerances. Failure by us to achieve or maintain compliance with these requirements or quality standards may disrupt our ability to supply products sufficient to meet our customers' demands, leading to the cancellation of existing and future orders, result in us incurring costs for repairing or replacing defective products as well as conducting product recalls and paying warranty and liability claims, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Our purchase orders, have standard liability clauses in relation to quality and delivery of our products, which ordinarily do not have any limits. Accordingly, we are required to provide warranty for such quality and delivery related obligations, which may or may not be capped in terms of time or monetary value. Further, the supply of defective products may result in our customers initiating litigation against us, which could materially harm our reputation, business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Furthermore, we may be subject to liability claims by third parties in the event that the use of any of our products results in personal injury or property damage, which could adversely affect our reputation and business and, to the extent not covered by insurance, our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. While there have been no instances where we were subject to any product liability claims in the last three Fiscals, we cannot guarantee that we can continue to comply with all regulatory requirements or the quality standards required by our customers and there can be no assurance that no product liability claim will arise in the future.

5. We depend on the large industries, EPC service providers, public utilities for selling of our products which may effects our revenue from operation and profits.

We are engaged in the manufacturing of transformers and relay panels which are totally designed and manufactured for large industries, EPC service providers, public utilities and not for the general public or use in the homes. Thus we are completely dependent on industries and large organizations which use these products, this dependency on industries may affect our profits and revenue. In case these industries refuse to accept the delivery of the product manufactured by us it would be very difficult for us to find an alternative market to sell the manufactured product and any such present and future conflicts could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition which may affect our profitability and results of operations.

6. Substantial portion of our revenues has been dependent upon few customers. The loss of any one or more of our major customer would have a material adverse effect on our business, cash flows, results of operations and financial condition.

The substantial portion of our revenues has been dependent upon few customers. For instance, our top ten customers for the period ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2022 accounted for 88.04%, 76.75% and 79.86% of our revenue from operations for the respective year/period. Our reliance on a limited number of customers for our business exposes us to risks, that may include, but are not limited to, reductions, delays or cancellation of orders from our significant customers, a failure to negotiate favourable terms with our key customers or the loss of these customers, all of which would have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and future prospects of our Company.

In addition, we received orders from our customers on purchase order basis and we have not entered into any long term agreements with our customers and the success of our business is significantly dependent on maintaining good relationship with them. The loss of one or more of these significant customers or a reduction in the amount of business we obtain from them could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Further, there is no guarantee that we will retain the business of our existing key customers or maintain the current level of business with each of these customers. In order to retain some of our existing customers, we may also be required to offer terms to such customers which may place restraints on our resources. Additionally, our revenues may be adversely affected if there is an adverse change in any of our customers' strategies or if our customers decide to choose our competitors over us or if there is a significant reduction in the volume of our business with such customers.

7. Product designing is very important part for our equipment for which we rely on our team. Any loss or error by these employees may have an adverse effect on our equipment and operations.

The designing of the equipment is a very crucial step for the proper functioning of the equipment, delivering the desired results and efficiency. We have a team who undertake the designing, engineering and drawing of the blue prints of the equipment to be manufactured. We have a team of around 34 employees who ensure compliance with the design specifications and quality standards laid down by the industry norms and customers. In case the design are not correct it may lead to orders being cancellation by the customer and/or loss of production as the final product will not match the customer specification. Further, we believe that for effective production process and better material management designing is very important task, and in case of any error at the designing stage may lead to loss of production which could have an adverse effect on our operations, business and reputation.

8. Any failure to protect or enforce our rights to own or use trademarks and brand names and identities could have an adverse effect on our business and competitive position.

We have obtained registration of the trademark  under Class 9 of the Trademark Act. We have also obtained registration of the trademark  under Class 9 of the Trademark Act. The Company is not in possession of the original registration certificate of the trademark , as the trademark was originally registered under the name of Expo-Fyn Electricals and Electronics. Vide agreement dated February 14, 2007, by way of assignment, Danish Private Limited was given all the rights to use the brand name “Expo-Fyn” for its business purpose from Expo-Fyn Electricals and Electronics. However, the Company has the renewal certificate of the same. Further, the Company has made an application on July 30, 2024 for registration of our corporate logo  under the Trademark Act, 1999 with the Registrar of Trademarks and the same is pending. We cannot assure you that our trademark application will be approved. In the absence of trademark registrations, we may not be able to initiate an infringement action against any third party who may be infringing our trademarks. For further details pertaining to the intellectual property of our Company, see “Our Business –Intellectual Property” and “Government and Other Statutory Approvals” on pages 111 and 267, respectively of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

We may not be able to prevent infringement of our trademarks. Further, our efforts to protect our intellectual property may not be adequate and may lead to erosion of our business value and our operations could be adversely affected. Further, if we do not maintain our brand identity, which is an important factor that differentiates us from our competitors, we may not be able to maintain our competitive edge. If we are unable to compete successfully, we could lose our customers, which would negatively affect our financial performance and profitability.

While we take care to ensure that we comply with the intellectual property rights of others, we cannot determine with certainty whether we are infringing any existing third-party intellectual property rights, which may force us to alter our offerings. We may also be susceptible to claims from third parties asserting infringement and other related claims. If similar claims are raised in the future, they could result in costly litigation, divert management’s attention and resources, subject us to significant liabilities and require us to enter into potentially expensive royalty or licensing agreements or to cease certain offerings. Any of the foregoing could have an adverse effect on our business. The application of laws governing intellectual property rights in India is uncertain, evolving and could involve substantial risks to us.

9. The Company has encountered certain issues and discrepancies in its corporate records and regulatory compliance, which present potential risks.

Our company has in the past inadvertently made certain clerical errors while filing the e-forms with the Registrar of Companies (ROC). These errors include incorrect details in Annual Returns such as the year of incorporation being incorrectly mentioned, non-attachment of required documents along with forms filed with RoC. Further, there has been certain delay in filing the particulars of satisfaction of a charge created in favour of Bharat Overseas Bank, Jaipur. The charge, established on February 26, 2007, was filed on May 19, 2012, beyond the prescribed deadline. However, as on date the company has taken necessary corrective actions and filed the requisite form with the relevant authorities. Also, a show cause notice was issued on August 28, 2023, concerning the Company's failure to submit its Cost Audit Report for the financial year ending March 31, 2020, within the mandated timeframe. This notice invokes potential penal actions under Sections 148 (8)(a) and 147 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013. While the Company has taken necessary action and submitted the Cost Audit Reports to the relevant authorities. In case of any action being taken against our company for the above non-compliance our company may be subject to penal provisions, which may have an adverse effect on our reputation and financial condition.

10. Certain of our corporate records relating to forms filed with the Registrar of Companies prior to the year 2002 in respect of Increase in Authorised Capital, Allotment of Equity Shares, Sub-division of shares, appointment of Statutory Auditor, appointment & resignation of directors (if any), filing of financial statements etc. and other certain records are not traceable.

We do not possess some of the prescribed e-forms filed with the Registrar of Companies, Jaipur, Rajasthan, particularly relating to forms filed prior to the year 2002 including, inter alia, in respect of increase in authorised capital, allotments of equity shares, sub-division of shares, appointment of statutory auditor, appointment & resignation of directors, filing of financial statements etc. Although we have obtained a search report dated July 1, 2024 from a Practising Company Secretary in relation to records maintained by ROC in the physical form, but still, information relating to above mentioned forms filed by the Company during the period between 1985 to 2002 could not be traced. Thus, the history of our company with regards to increase in authorised capital, allotments of equity shares, sub-division of shares, appointment of statutory auditor, appointment & resignation of directors, filing of financial statements etc. presented in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is based on the limited information available with the Company. While our Company believes that these ROC forms were duly filed on a timely basis, we cannot assure you that all the aforementioned forms filed with ROC will be available in the future.

Further, certain other statutory records such as Minutes Book, and Statutory Registers pertaining to the years prior to 2001 are not traceable by us. Also, the Company is not in possession of any Share Transfer Deed for the transfer undertaken prior to year 2014. Due to the non-availability of the requisite statutory records, we may not be able to present the requisite documentary evidence to validate our point which may lead to any penal actions being taken against the Company and its operations may get adversely affected.

11. Our business and our financial condition would be materially and adversely affected if we fail to obtain new purchase orders and contracts.

Our company is engaged in the business of manufacturing of transformers and relay panels which are critical equipments in power generation and distribution industry. Our revenue from operations is dependent on the receipt of new purchase orders from the customers. As part of our business, we receive the RFQ from the customers along with the details and specifications of the product to be manufactured. Based on the product design and specifications we provide the quotations to the customers and the work order are typically awarded to us based on the satisfaction of prescribed qualification criteria and the price quoted by our company. There can be no assurance that we would always be able to get the purchase order in our favour. The growth of our business mainly depends on our ability to obtain new contracts. Generally, it is very difficult to predict whether and when we will be awarded a new contract. Our future results of operations and cash flows can fluctuate materially from period to period depending on the timely award of contracts, commencement of production and timely delivery of the products as per the customer specifications. If we are unable to obtain new orders for our business, our business will be materially and adversely affected.

12. Our Company is party to certain legal proceedings. Any adverse decision in such proceedings may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our Company is party to certain legal proceedings. These legal proceedings are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts, tribunals and forums. Mentioned below are the details of the proceedings involving our Company as on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus along with the amount involved, to the extent quantifiable, based on the materiality policy for litigations, as approved by the Company in its Board meeting held on July 22, 2024.

⁽²⁾To the extent material for our Company.

There can be no assurance that these will be decided in favour of our Company, and consequently it may divert the attention of our management and Promoters and waste our corporate resources and we may incur significant expenses in such proceedings and may have to make provisions in our financial statements, which could increase our expenses and liabilities. If such claims are determined against us, there could be a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations, which could adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. For the details of the cases please refer the chapter titled “Outstanding Litigations and Material Developments” beginning on page 260 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

13. Fluctuations in the exchange rate of foreign currencies could result in currency transactions losses.

Our business involves exports transactions with our customers, foreign exchange term loan & purchase of raw material, which are paid in foreign currencies. A depreciation of Rupee against these foreign currencies would mean that our export of products would become expensive and will impact our export margins. During the FY 2022, 2023 and 2024 the exports accounted for approximately Rs. 708.68 lakhs, Rs. 652.35 lakhs and Rs. 811.19 lakhs respectively which represent approximately 4.77%, 3.46% and 2.44% of our revenue from operations. The exchange rate between the Rupee and these foreign currencies has fluctuated substantially in recent years and may continue to fluctuate significantly in the future. We bear the complete risk of currency exchange rate fluctuations. Further, the exchange gain and loss accounted during the FY 2022, 2023 and 2024 was approximately gain of Rs. 61.57 lakhs, loss of Rs. 107.40 lakhs and gain of Rs. 5.98 lakhs respectively. We cannot assure you that, in future we will be able to completely manage the foreign exchange gain or loss. Any depreciation in the rupee against the foreign currency and our ability to mitigate the loss incurred due to same may have an adverse effect on our profitability and business opportunity.

14. Our objects of the issue includes capital expenditure, which will take a period of time for set up and become operational.

Our object involve establishment of a manufacturing setup, which is a complex and time-consuming process that can indeed take a significant amount of time for installation and become operational. During this period, there are several risks and challenges that can potentially arise, which could lead to cost overruns and escalation of expenses. During the setup phase, various unforeseen expenses can emerge. These may include delay in the receipt of the IPO proceeds, unexpected regulatory compliance costs, delays in obtaining permits, or unforeseen technical challenges. These unanticipated costs can lead to a significant increase in the overall estimates. Further, the regulatory requirements can change over time, necessitating modifications to the manufacturing setup to ensure compliance. These changes can lead to increased costs, especially if they require retrofitting or redesigning aspects of the setup. For details of the funds utilization for IPO, please refer the page no. 77 of the chapter “Object of the Issue”. In case the assumptions on which these estimates have been made are not correct or they become un-realistic then there will be a variation in the estimates and the actual expenditure incurred which could result in execution delays and have an adverse effect on our operations and profitability.

15. Our Company operations requires significant amount of working capital for a continuing growth. Our inability to meet our working capital requirements may adversely affect our results of operations.

Our Company’s business is working capital intensive and hence, inventories and trade receivables form a major part of our current assets. We are engaged in the business of manufacturing of Transformer and panels which require large amount of working capital being involved in trade receivable and inventory. Manufacturing of transformer required lot of sundry items apart from other raw material so maintaining sufficient inventory is critical for our operations which could act as a buffer against any supply disruptions. Any failure on our part to effectively manage our inventory in response to changing market scenario may have an adverse effect on our financial condition and may even lead to loss of business and increase the costs of our operations. During the period ending FY 2023- 24, 2022-23 and 2021-22 our inventories were, ₹ 4901.74 lakhs, ₹ 3762.73 lakhs and ₹ 3082.59 lakhs.

To effectively manage our trade receivables, we must be able to accurately evaluate the credit worthiness of our customers and ensure that suitable terms and conditions are given to them in order to ensure our continued relationship with them. However, if we fail to accurately evaluate the credit worthiness of our customers, it may lead to bad debts, delays in recoveries and / or write-offs which could lead to a liquidity crunch, thereby adversely affecting our business and results of operations. During the period ending FY 2023- 24, 2022-23 and 2021-22 our trade receivables were ₹ 4235.22 lakhs, ₹ 2667.01 lakhs and ₹ 5262.09 lakhs respectively. Out of which Rs. 39.50 lakhs, 14.72 lakhs and 188.24 lakhs represent trade receivables which are outstanding for over 1 year respectively. Any defaults/delays by our customers in meeting their payment obligations to us may have a material effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We may be subject to working capital risks due to delays or defaults in payment by clients, which may restrict our ability to procure raw materials and make payments when due. In addition, any delay or failure on the part of the clients to make payment of the amount dues may lead to legal consequences with our customers. Such defaults/delays by our customers in meeting their payment obligations to us may have a material effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. A liquidity crunch may also result in case of increased working capital borrowings and, consequently, higher finance cost which will adversely impact our profitability. The details of our working capital for the year ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022 are as under which is showing continuous increase:

(Amt in Rs lakhs)

Particulars	For the year ended on March 31, 2024	For the year ended on March 31, 2023	For the year ended on March 31, 2022
Current Assets	12,339.86	7,665.18	9,319.38
Current Liabilities	6,938.48	5,199.29	6,652.06
Net Working capital requirement.	5,401.38	2,465.89	2,667.32

16. Our company has pending export obligation, in case the Company fail to meet export obligations we may be liable to payments of duty along with interest to the department.

Our Company have the below mentioned export obligation, as on date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus –

S.no	Date	Advance Authorization Number	Amount (USD)
1.	February 21, 2023	1311001761	638174.73
2.	June 23, 2023	1311002018	82900.00

Further, in past, our company was unable to fulfil an export obligation for which our company may be held liable to pay the requisite duties and interest thereon on account of failure to meet export obligation. 17. The factory of our Company operates from a premise taken by us on lease basis. If we are unable to comply with the terms of the lease deed, the same may adversely affect our Company's ability to operate its current operations thus affecting its financial performance.

Our Company has entered into a lease deed dated January 18, 2021 with Mahindra World City (Jaipur) Limited to lease Plot No. DTA – 02-07 & 08, DTA Phase II, Tehsil Sanganer, Off Jaipur – Ajmer Road, NH #8, District Jaipur, measuring 13,961.46 sq. mts. As per the terms of the Agreement, our Company is required to obtain prior written consent from the Lessor before sub-leasing, transferring, or assigning the Property. However, our Company has granted one of its subsidiaries namely Danish Transformers India Private Limited, the right to also use the Property as its registered office without obtaining the Lessor's prior permission.

A loss of our Company's interests in the Property, including through actual or alleged non-compliance with the terms of the lease / rent arrangements, the termination of lease by the Lessor, or an inability to secure renewal thereof on commercially reasonable terms when they expire, would interfere with our Company's ability to operate its current operations thus affecting its financial performance. The cost of relocating a site is significant. We may not be able to pass these costs on to our customers and any such relocation could cause disruption to our customers. In addition, we may not always have the ability to access, analyse and verify all information regarding title and other issues prior to entering into lease in respect of the leased site, and to the extent there is any defect in the titles of any of such leased / rent site, our ability to continue operating at such leased site may be adversely affected.

18. One of our subsidiaries namely Everest Shelter Private Limited, has taken on lease certain premises on which its business is dependent. Any termination of the lease agreement which adversely affect its operations and profitability.

One of our subsidiaries, Everest Shelter Private Limited ("ESPL"), has taken on a sublease the property being Plot Nos. DTA-02-09 & 10, measuring 14,020.63 sq. mtrs under a supplemental lease deed dated October 08, 2021 from Mahindra World City (Jaipur) Limited. However, the Agreement is not duly registered and stamped. Unless such a document is adequately stamped or duly registered, it may be rendered inadmissible as evidence in a court in India, may not be authenticated by any public officer, and may attract a penalty as prescribed under applicable law. This may impact the ability of our Subsidiary to enforce this Agreement legally, which could result in an adverse effect on the continuance of its operations and business.

Furthermore, according to the terms of the Agreement, prior to transfer of the majority of its shareholding to any third party, ESPL is required to obtain prior written permission from the Lessor. If the Lessor permits the transfer of the shareholding of ESPL, then ESPL must pay transfer charges to the Lessor prior to such transfer. The equity shares of ESPL have been transferred by its erstwhile shareholders to Shivam Talwar (nominee shareholder) and Danish Power Limited. However, no transfer charges have been paid to the Lessor. There can be no assurance that such a claim for such transfer charges will not arise in the future against ESPL. Any termination of the lease agreement may adversely affect ESPL's operations and profitability.

Additionally, a part of the premise, i.e., Plot Nos. 09 and 10 DTA-2 Mahindra World City, Vill Newtta, Teh Sanganer, Jaipur, admeasuring 78,277 sq. ft., is subleased to Accumix Private Limited by ESPL via a lease deed dated October 08, 2022. As per terms of the Agreement, ESPL is required to obtain prior written consent of the Lessor for subleasing, transferring, or assigning the Premise. However, ESPL has subleased part of the Premise to Accumix Private Limited without obtaining the Lessor's permission. The Lessor is entitled to terminate the Agreement in case of breach of any of its provisions by ESPL. Moreover, ESPL has not entered into any formal agreement with the owner of the registered office of ESPL located at No. 6/1-1, Old Municipal No. 3, Museum Road, Ward No. 111 (formerly Ward No. 76), Bangalore-560001 for use of the same and the use of the registered office is authorised only by a letter dated December 09, 2021, issued by Strata Property Management Private Limited, the owner of the Office Premises, to ESPL. Since no formal agreement has been executed, Strata Property Management Private Limited may terminate the authorisation to use the Office Premises at any time. In the event of termination of the letter, ESPL may need to find alternative locations, which would require significant time and resources. If suitable alternative premises are not available at similar costs, sizes, or locations in a timely manner, its business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations may be adversely affected.

19. We have not made any provisions for decline in the value of investments made by our Company. Any continuous decline in the value of investments made by our company may impact our financial results and condition.

The value of Investment made by our company as of March 31, 2024 stood at ₹ 1.00 Lakhs which represents investment in the equity shares of our Subsidiary company, Further during the year 2024-25, we have acquired entire stake in Everest Shelter Private Limited including the CCDs for an amount of Rs. 3050.00 lakhs. There have been no provisions made by the management for fluctuation in the value of investments. For details of the financial information of our Subsidiary company refer chapter “Our Subsidiary” beginning on page 281 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Any future loss or profit on the sale of the said investment will be included in the account only when the said investments are sold which may have a material impact on our financial conditions and results of operations of the company

20. Certain documents in relation to educational qualification for one of our Director are not available and reliance has been made on declarations and affidavits furnished by such Director for details of their profiles included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Our Whole Time Director Dinesh Talwar is unable to trace copies of documents pertaining to their educational qualifications. Accordingly, reliance has been placed on declarations, undertakings and affidavits furnished by them to us, to disclose details of their educational qualifications in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. We have been unable to independently verify these details prior to inclusion in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Further, there can be no assurances that our Director will be able to trace the relevant documents pertaining to their qualifications and prior experience in future, or at all.

21. Our major revenue is sourced from sale of our products which is transformers. Our inability or failure to manage and attract more clients in this regards could adversely affect our business.

A major portion of our business revenue is derived from the sales of product which is transformers. If there is a disruption in the form of new technology in the manufacturing of transformers then it may lead to disruption in the business. If our company is unable to adapt to the new technology in a timely manner or if the demand for transformers and other heavy electrical goods does not grow faster enough or it takes longer to reach higher volumes than we anticipate, or if we are unable to get the business from our customers which constitutes major portion of our revenue, our revenue may disrupt and thereby our business, operational and financial results may be adversely affected.

22. Our profitability and business operations is significantly dependent on our ability to successfully anticipate the industry and client requirements. Any failure on our part to do so, may have an impact on our operations, which could have an adverse effect on our revenue, reputation, financial conditions, results of operations and cash flows.

Our profitability, business operations and its success is significantly dependent on our ability to ensure continued demand for our products in existing and proposed markets, which requires us to continuously anticipate and respond in a timely manner to customer requirements and preferences. If we are unable to successfully anticipate customer requirements or are unable to modify our current portfolio of products or develop new products, in a timely manner, we may lose customers.

Though we are committed to product innovation to respond to changing technology in the electric equipment industry, there can be no assurance that we would be successful in developing new products that respond to such changes or changes in customer requirements and preferences or that our products would gain acceptance in our existing or new markets. Any enhancement to our existing offerings or new offerings that we develop and introduce involves significant commitment of time and resources and is subject to a number of risks and challenges including:

- ensuring the timely deployment of new offerings and features;
- adapting to emerging and evolving industry standards, technological developments by our competitors and changing client requirements;
- operating effectively with existing or newly-introduced technologies, systems, or applications of our existing and prospective clients.

The development of alternative technologies or a fundamental shift in technologies in key markets for our electric equipment could have an adverse effect on our business. Moreover, failure to correctly anticipate trends and adapt to the changing technological environment may result in reduced demand for our products which could have adverse effect on our revenue, reputation, financial conditions, results of operations and cash flows.

23. Our Company has not yet placed orders for the civil work, some of the machineries and equipment required by us for expansion of our manufacturing facility. Any delay in placing the orders or supply of plant and machinery may result in time and cost overruns, and may affect our profitability.

Our Company proposes to deploy IPO proceeds towards building of factory shed, acquire machineries and equipment for expansion of our manufacturing facility. Our Company has identified the machineries to be acquired and has received the quotations from the suppliers, but we have not placed final orders for civil work and some of the machineries and equipment aggregating to Rs. 2131.56 lakhs. We have already placed order for machineries amounting to Rs. 1448.43 lakhs and have paid an advance amounting to Rs. 62.85 lakhs representing 40.46% of our total expenditure which are proposed to be acquired for our expansion plan by utilization of Issue Proceeds. Our Company is further subject to risks on account of inflation in the price of construction of the factory building and plant and machinery. Since the part funding for the plant and machinery is from the IPO proceeds, any delay in access to IPO proceeds would eventually delay the process of placing the orders. The purchase of machineries and equipment's would require us to consider factors including but not limited to pricing, delivery schedule and after-sales maintenance. There may be a possibility of delay at the supplier's end in providing timely delivery of these machineries and equipment, which in turn may delay the implementation of our expansion plan. Further, the quotations relied upon by us in arriving at the total cost of construction, machineries and equipment are valid for a specific period of time and may lapse after the expiry of the specific period. Consequent upon which, there could be a possible escalation in the cost of machineries and equipment's proposed to be acquired by us at the actual time of purchase, resulting in increase in the project cost, which may result in cost overruns, and may affect our profitability. For further details read section "Objects of the Issue" beginning on page 77 of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

24. Activities involving our manufacturing process can be dangerous and can cause injury to people or property in certain circumstances. A significant disruption at our manufacturing facilities may adversely affect our production schedules, costs, sales, and ability to meet customer demand.

Our business involves complex manufacturing processes that can be dangerous to our employees. Although we employ safety procedures in the operation of our facilities and maintain what we believe to be adequate insurance, but there is a risk that an accident may occur at our manufacturing facilities. An accident may result in destruction of property or equipment, environmental damage, manufacturing or delivery delays, or may lead to suspension of our operations and / or imposition of liabilities. Any such accident may result in litigation, the outcome of which is difficult to assess or quantify, and the cost to defend such litigation can be significant. As a result, the costs to defend any action, or the potential liability resulting from any such accident or arising out of any other litigation, and any negative publicity associated therewith, may have a negative effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Interruptions in production may also increase our costs and reduce our sales, and may require us to make substantial capital expenditures to remedy the situation or to defend litigation that we may become involved in as a result, which may negatively affect our profitability, business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

25. A shortage or non-availability of electricity or power may adversely affect our manufacturing operations and have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our manufacturing operations require a significant amount and continuous supply of electricity and power and any shortage or non-availability may adversely affect our operations. We currently source our power requirements from state electricity boards for majority of our energy requirements. For Fiscal 2022, Fiscal 2023 and Fiscal 2024, our power and fuel costs was Rs. 58.16 lakhs, Rs. 73.72 lakhs and Rs. 98.78 lakhs, constituting 0.35%, 0.41% and 0.41%, respectively, of our total expenses. If supply is not available for any reason, we will need to rely on alternative sources, which may not be able to consistently meet our requirements and are high on costs, thereby adversely affecting our cost of production and profitability. Further, if, for any reason such electricity is not available, we may need to shut down our plants until an adequate supply of electricity is restored. Our customer relationships, business and financial results may be materially adversely affected by any disruption of manufacturing operations, including as a result of any of the factors mentioned above.

26. If we fail to maintain an effective system of internal controls, we may not be able to successfully manage or accurately report our financial risk.

Effective internal controls are necessary for us to prepare reliable financial reports and effectively prevent and detect any frauds or misuse of funds. Moreover, any internal controls that we may implement, or our level of compliance with such controls, may decline over time. There can be no assurance that additional deficiencies or lacks in our internal controls will not arise in the future, or that we will be able to implement and continue to maintain adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies or lacks in our internal controls. If internal control weaknesses are identified in a delayed manner, our actions may not be sufficient to correct such internal control weakness. Such instances may also adversely affect our reputation, thereby adversely impacting our business, results of operations and financial condition.

27. If we are unable to retain and hire skilled employees, or to maintain good relations with our workforce, our business and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Our ability to provide quality products and services and to manage the complexity of our business depends, in part, on our ability to retain and attract skilled personnel in the areas of management, product engineering, design, manufacture, servicing, sales, information technology, and finance. Competition for such personnel is intense and the cost of retaining or replacing such personnel may affect our profitability. In addition, our strategies for growth have placed, and are expected to continue to place, increased demands on our management's and employees' skills and resources. Further, our manufacturing activities are labour intensive, requiring our management to undertake significant labour interface, and expose us to the risk of industrial action. As of March 31, 2024, we had a total work force of 343 employees employed by our company on a full-time basis apart from the on roll employees we also employ personnels on contractual basis.

We cannot ensure that we will not be subject to work stoppages, strikes or other types of conflicts with our employees or contract workers in the future. Any such event, at our current facilities or at any new facilities that we may commission or acquire in the future, may adversely affect our ability to operate our business and serve our customers, and impair our relationships with key customers and suppliers, which may adversely impact our business and financial condition. Any changes in the existing labour laws, may increase our labour cost and may also increase time spent by the management in labour related matters, which could impact our business and results of operations. If labour laws become more stringent or are more strictly enforced, it may become difficult for us to maintain flexible human resource policies, discharge employees or downsize, any of which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

28. Our Company operates under several statutory and regulatory permits, licenses and approvals. Our inability to obtain, renew or maintain the statutory and regulatory licenses, permits and approvals required to operate our business may have an adverse effect on our business & operations.

We require several statutory and regulatory permits, licenses and approvals to operate our business. Many of these approvals are granted for fixed periods of time and need renewal from time to time. Non-renewal of the said permits and licenses would adversely affect our operations, thereby having a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. There can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will issue any of such permits or approvals in the time-frame anticipated by us or at all.

Further, we have made an application for the renewal of Accreditation bearing no.: ISO/IEC 17025:2017 for office premises at 07 & 08, DTA Phase – II, Mahindra World City, Tehsil Sanganer, Jaipur, Rajasthan, India. For further details, please refer to section titled “Government and Other Approvals” beginning on page 267 of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Further, some of our permits, licenses and approvals are subject to several conditions and we cannot provide any assurance that we will be able to continuously meet such conditions or be able to prove compliance with such conditions to the statutory authorities, which may lead to the cancellation, revocation or suspension of relevant permits, licenses or approvals. Any failure by us to apply in time, to renew, maintain or obtain the required permits, licenses or approvals, or revoke the cancellation or suspension of any of the permits, licenses or approvals may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on the business. For further details, please see chapters titled “Key Regulations and Policies” and “Government and Other Statutory Approvals” at pages 128 and 267 respectively of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Our Company is an ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015 and ISO 45001:2018 certified company for design, manufacturing and supply of various types of transformers & Contril relay panels. Further, we require these certifications for efficient operations, part of customer requirements and industry norms. Though, we believe that we have obtained those certifications, permits and licenses which are adequate to run our business, but any failure to renew, maintain or obtain the required permits or approvals in time may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on our business. For further details, please refer to section titled “Government and Other Statutory Approvals” beginning on page 267 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

29. Demand for our transformers and relay panels business is dependent on growth in the power generation, transmission and distribution industry & infrastructure, that may contribute to fluctuations in our results of operations and financial condition.

The sale of our transformers and relay panels to a large extent depends on the growth in the power generation, transmission and distribution industry. The transformer we manufacture are majorly used in the power sector, we may face disruption from customer in case there is any temporary or permanent slowdown in the sector. If there is any slowdown in the industry it may lead to reduction in orders from the customers, delay or re-schedule of the delivery commitments and delay or defaults in payments from the customer. Thus, in case there is any slowdown in the demand for the power, general slowdown in the power generation or distribution sector it may have an adverse effect on our business, revenue and operations.

30. We operate in competitive markets and may face competition from different players in the market which may have an adverse effect on our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

We operate in highly competitive markets and there are no specific entry barriers to the industry in which we operate. But, high capital requirement, manufacturing setup, product knowledge, customer validation and approvals process, expectation from customers for high quality standards and stringent specifications may act as barriers to new entrants. There are several strategies adopted by our competitors to increase their market shares including pricing, discounts, multi-location operations, multi-level marketing etc.

In India, these competitors include companies which are engaged in the manufacturing of transformers, relay panels and other electrical equipment manufacturers. To protect our existing market share or capture additional market share in this highly competitive environment, we may be required to increase expenditure for promotions and introduce and establish new products or services. There can be no assurance that our current or potential competitors will not offer products and services comparable or superior to those that we offer at the same or lower prices, adapt more quickly to changes in customer preferences, or expand their operations at a faster pace than we do. Increased competition may result in price reductions, reduced profit margins and loss of market share, thereby causing an adverse effect on our operations, prospects and financial condition

31. We have experienced significant growth in the past few years, and if we are unable to sustain or manage our growth, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

As per our Restated Financial Information, our revenue from operations for Fiscal 2022, Fiscal 2023 and Fiscal 2024 was Rs. 14863.36 lakhs, Rs. 18870.06 lakhs and Rs. 33247.67 lakhs, respectively, representing a CAGR of 49.56%. In case we are unable to sustain our rates of growth, due to a variety of reasons including a decline in the demand for our products, increased price competition, non-availability of raw materials, lack of management availability, or a general slowdown in the economy. Any failure to sustain our growth may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

32. We have incurred indebtedness which exposes us to various risks which may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations

Our ability to borrow and the terms of our borrowings will depend on our financial condition, the stability of our cash flows, general market conditions, economic and political conditions in the markets where we operate and our capacity to service debt. As on March 31, 2024, our total outstanding indebtedness was Rs. 1011.60 Lakhs. Our significant indebtedness in future may result in substantial amount of debt service obligations which could lead to:

- a. increasing our vulnerability to general adverse economic, industry and competitive conditions;
- b. limiting our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and the industry;
- c. affecting our credit rating;
- d. limiting our ability to borrow more money both now and in the future; and
- e. increasing our interest expenditure and adversely affecting our profitability.

If the loans are recalled on a short notice, we may be required to arrange for funds to fulfil the necessary requirements. The occurrence of these events may have an adverse effect on our cash flow and financial conditions of the company. For further details regarding our indebtedness, see "Statement of Financial Indebtedness" on page 248 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

33. Loans availed by Our Company has been secured on personal guarantees of our Director. Our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects may be adversely affected in case of invocation of any personal guarantees provided by our Directors.

Our Promoter, Dinesh Talwar & Shivam Talwar has provided personal guarantee to secure a significant portion of our existing borrowings taken from the banks and may continue to provide such guarantees and other security post listing. In case of a default under our loan agreements, any of the personal guarantees provided by the aforesaid may be invoked which could negatively impact their reputation and net worth. Also, we may face certain impediments in taking decisions in relation to our Company, which in turn would result in a material adverse effect on our financial condition, business, results of operations and prospects and would negatively impact our reputation. We may also not be successful in procuring alternate guarantees/ alternate security satisfactory to the lenders, as a result may need to repay outstanding amounts under such facilities or seek additional sources of capital, which could affect our financial condition and cash flows. For further details regarding loans availed by our Company, please refer "Statement of Financial Indebtedness" on page 248 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

34. Ineffective execution of marketing programs and reduced marketing expenditure could have an adverse effect on our sales.

We spend a significant amount on our marketing and sales promotions. During the Fiscal 2024 we undertake Rs. 559.00 lakhs towards marketing and sales promotion which has helped us in attaining a revenue from operations amounting to Rs. 33247.67 lakhs. Our future growth and profitability may depend upon our marketing strategies and the sales promotion activities undertaken by our company. Although, the primary factors in determining the buying decisions in the business include customer confidence, price points for our products, and quality of customer service. However, the ability to differentiate our products from competitors by its branding and sales promotion programs is an important factor in attracting customers. Further, we cannot assure you that we will be able to accurately estimate our marketing expenditure. In case our marketing expenses are lesser than market standards, our marketing programs may be perceived ineffective. However, if our marketing expenses are higher than the market standards, it may adversely affect our income and results of operations. Any such event may have an adverse effect on our business operations and financial position.

35. Fraud, theft, employee negligence or similar incidents may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

As on March 31, 2024 we had total inventory consisting of raw material, work in progress and finished goods to the value of Rs. 4901.74 Lakhs. Our business operations require us to maintain large amounts of inventory at times. Our operations may be subject to incidents of theft or damage to inventory in transit, prior to or during factory stocking and display. Although we have set up various security measures and follow stringent operational processes but, there can be no assurance that we will not experience any fraud, theft, employee negligence, security lapse, loss in transit or similar incidents in the future, which could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Additionally, in case of losses due to fraud, theft or damage caused by other casualties, there can be no assurance that we will be able to recover from our insurer the full amount of any such loss in a timely manner, or at all. If we incur a significant inventory loss due to third-party or employee theft or misconduct and if such loss exceeds the limits of, or is subject to an exclusion from, coverage under our insurance policies, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

36. Our contingent liabilities and commitments as stated in our Restated Financial Statements could affect our financial condition.

Our Contingent liability and commitments as on March 31, 2024 was Rs. 5237.32 Lakhs. If this contingent liability materializes, fully or partly, the financial condition of our Company could be affected.

37. Our Company in the past has entered into Related Party Transactions and may continue to do so in future also, which may affect our competitive edge and better bargaining power if entered with non-related parties resulting into relatively more favourable terms and conditions and better margins.

Our Company has entered into various transactions with our Directors, Promoter, Promoter Group entities. These transactions, inter-alia includes, remuneration, interest payment, loans and advances, etc. Our Company has entered into such transactions due to easy proximity and quick execution. However, there is no assurance that we could not have obtained better and more favourable terms than from transaction with related parties. Additionally, we believe that all our related party transactions have been conducted on an arm’s length basis, we cannot provide assurance that we could have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions been entered with third parties. Our Company may enter into such transactions in future also and we cannot assure that in such events there would be no adverse effect on results of our operations. 38. Information relating to our production capacities and the historical capacity utilization of our production facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is based on certain assumptions and has been subjected to rounding off, and thus our future production and capacity utilization may vary.

Information relating to our production capacities and the historical capacity utilization of our production facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates of our management, including proposed operations, assumptions relating to availability and quality of raw materials and assumptions relating to operational efficiencies. Actual production levels and utilization rates may differ significantly from the estimated production capacities or historical estimated capacity utilization information of our facilities. Undue reliance should therefore not be placed on our production capacity or historical estimated capacity utilization information for our existing facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. For further information, see the section titled “Our Business” on page 111 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

39. We depend on third-parties for our transportation needs. Any disruptions may adversely affect our operations, business and financial condition.

We do not have an in-house transportation facility and we rely on third party transportation and other logistic facilities for transportation of products to our various places. For this purpose, we hire services of transportation companies. Our reliance on such third party logistics providers may increase as we expand our operations. Further, the value of our goods carried by such third-party transporters is typically much higher than the consideration paid for transportation, due to which it may be difficult for us to recover compensation for damaged, delayed or lost goods. Our operations and profitability are dependent upon the availability of transportation and other logistic facilities in a time and cost efficient manner. Accordingly, our business is vulnerable to increased transportation costs including as a result of increase in fuel costs, transportation strikes, delays, damage or losses of goods in transit and disruption of transportation services because of weather related problems, strikes, lock-outs, accidents, inadequacies in road infrastructure or other events.

Although we have not experienced any disruptions in the past, any prolonged disruption or unavailability of such facilities in a timely manner could result in delays or non-supply or may require us to look for alternative sources which may be cost inefficient, thereby adversely affecting our operations, profitability, reputation and market position.

40. We are subject to restrictive covenants under our credit facilities that limit our operational flexibility.

The loan agreements entered into by us with banks contain specific covenants which require us to obtain the prior approval/ permission from the banks on the occurrence of certain events such as formulation of any scheme of amalgamation or reconstruction, undertaking of any new project or expansion, making any substantial change in our management set up, any change in our capital structure resulting in reduction of capital, etc. We are required to obtain consent/ approval from our lender before undertaking any such steps which have been mentioned in the loan agreements. There can be no assurance that such consents will be granted or that we will be able to comply with the financial covenants under our financing arrangements. In the event we breach any financial or other covenants contained in any of our financing arrangements, we may be required under the terms of such financing arrangements to immediately repay our borrowings either in whole or in part, together with any related costs. This may adversely impact our results of operations and cash flows. For further details on the Cash Credit Limits and other banking facilities, please see “Statement of Financial Indebtedness” on page 248 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

41. We are heavily dependent on our Promoters and Key Managerial Personnel for the continued success of our business through their continuing services and strategic guidance and support.

Our success heavily depends upon the continued services of our Key managerial personnel, along with support of our Promoters. We also depend significantly on our Key Managerial Persons for executing our day-to-day activities. The loss of any of our Promoter and Key Management Personnel, or failure to recruit suitable or comparable replacements, could have an adverse effect on us. The loss of service of the Promoters and other senior management could seriously impair the ability to continue to manage and expand the business efficiently. If we are unable to retain qualified employees at a reasonable cost, we may be unable to execute our growth strategy. For further details of our Directors and key managerial personnel, please refer to Section “Our Management” on page 141 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

42. We deploy advanced technologies in the manufacturing, designing and installation of transformers. Any incapability to adopt a new technology or change in the requirement of a particular technology by the government authorities may affect our position.

The manufacturing, designing and installation of our products is technically complex, time consuming and resource intensive because of complex manufacturing process and strict adherence to customers specifications and requirements. We constantly upgrade our technical abilities to offer our clients the full range of products at lower cost and without compromising on quality. To use existing infrastructure to its maximum by avoiding major civil works, and provide cost effective and viable solutions, meeting the effluent norms at the same time. In the event of any change in the requirement by the government authorities/bodies of any technology presently used, which we are not able to provide or we lack sufficient expertise in that technology, we will not be in a position to undertake such work orders for lack of technical qualification and our competitors may get an advantage due to our incapability which could have an adverse effect on our business and revenue from operations.

43. We have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to mobilize the required resources or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule.

The proposed fund requirement for our proposed expansion plans by installing additional machinery and working capital requirements, as detailed in the section titled "Objects of the Issue" is to be funded from the proceeds of this IPO. We have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to mobilize the required resources or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule. We therefore, cannot assure that we would be able to execute our future plans/strategy within the given timeframe. For details, please refer to the Chapter titled "Objects of the Issue" beginning on page 77 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

While we believe that the insurance coverage maintained by us is adequate and consistent with the size of our business. However, there is no assurance that the insurance policy taken by us will be adequate for us to cover the losses. If we suffer any uninsured loss or if claim made by us in respect of an insurance is not accepted or any loss occurred by us is in excess of the insurance coverage may adversely affect our operation, results and financials. We are also subject to the labour laws like depositing of contribution with Provident Fund and ESI. Though, we have deposited the required returns under various applicable Acts but any delay in submission of the requisite returns or the tax amount with the relevant authority or any demand or penalty raised by the concerned authority in future for any previous year and current year will affect the financial position of the Company.

46. The Objects of the Issue for which funds are being raised have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. Any variation between the estimation and actual expenditure as estimated by the management could result in execution delays or influence our profitability adversely.

The deployment of funds as stated in the "Objects of the Issue" beginning on page 77 of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus is entirely at the discretion of our management and has not been appraised by any independent agency. Further, the purposes for which the Net Proceeds are to be utilized have not been appraised by an independent entity and are based on our estimates and on third-party quotations. In the event, for whatsoever reason, we are unable to execute our plans, we could have a significant amount of unallocated net proceeds. In case the assumptions on which these estimates have been made are not correct or they become unrealistic then there will be a variation in the estimates and the actual expenditure incurred which could result in execution delays and have an adverse effect on our operations and profitability.

47. Our ability to pay any dividends will depend upon future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures.

We may retain all our future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of our business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on factors that our Board of Directors deem relevant, including among others, our results of operations, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. Accordingly, realization of a gain on shareholders investments may largely depend upon the appreciation of the price of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that our Equity Shares will appreciate in value. For details of our Dividend history refer to the Section "Dividend Policy" on page 160 of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

48. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters, is lower than the face value of Equity Share.

lower than the face value of Equity Shares i.e., Rs. 10/-. For further details regarding the average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company and build-up of Equity Shares of our Promoters in our Company, please see Chapter titled “Capital Structure” beginning on page 59 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus

49. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity linked securities by us and any sale of Equity Shares by our significant shareholders may dilute your shareholding and adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future issuance of the Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to the Equity Shares by us may dilute your shareholding in the Company, adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares and our ability to raise capital through an issue of our securities. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. No assurance may be given that we will not issue additional Equity Shares. The disposal of Equity Shares by any of our significant shareholders, or the perception that such sales may occur may significantly affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that we will not issue Equity Shares or that such shareholders will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

50. Our Promoters and the Promoter Group will jointly continue to retain majority shareholding in our Company after the issue, which will allow them to determine the outcome of the matters requiring the approval of shareholders.

Our promoters along with the promoter group will continue to hold collectively [●] of the equity share capital of the company. As a result of the same they will be able to exercise significant influence over the control of the outcome of the matter that requires approval of the majority shareholder’s vote. Such a concentration of the ownership may also have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring any change in the control of our company. In addition to the above, our promoters will continue to have the ability to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with our interest or the interest of some or all of our minority shareholders, and there is no assurance that such action will not have any adverse effect on our future financials or results of operations.

51. The Issue price of our Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue and the market price of our Equity Shares may decline below the issue price and you may not be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

The issue price of the equity shares has been based on many factors and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue. For further information please refer the section titled “Basis for Issue Price” beginning on page 89 of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The market price of our Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Issue, and may decline below the Issue Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

52. Certain data mentioned in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus has not been independently verified.

We have not independently verified data from industry publications contained herein and although we believe these sources to be reliable, we cannot assure that they are complete or reliable. Such data may also be produced on a different basis from comparable information compiled with regard to other countries. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India and its economy are subject to the limitation that the statistical and other data upon which such discussions are based have not been verified by us and may be incomplete or unreliable.

53. We have issued Equity Shares during the last one year at a price that will be below the Issue Price.

In the preceding 12 months, we have made an allotment of 1,28,74,320 Equity Shares as bonus issue which are issued at a price which will be below the Issue price. For details relating to list of allottees, date of allotment etc. please refer to section titled “Capital Structure” on page 59 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

54. Significant differences exist between Indian GAAP and other accounting principles, such as Ind AS, IFRS and U.S. GAAP, which may be material to investors’ assessments of our financial condition, result of operations and cash flows.

Our restated summary statements of assets and liabilities, restated summary statements of profit and loss and cash flows for the Fiscals 2024, 2023 & 2022 have been prepared in accordance with the Indian GAAP. We have not attempted to quantify the impact of US GAAP, IFRS or any other system of accounting principles on the financial data included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial statements to those of US GAAP, IFRS or any other accounting principles. Ind AS, US GAAP and IFRS differ in significant respects from Indian GAAP. Accordingly, the degree to which the Restated Financial Information included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader’s level of familiarity with Ind AS, Indian GAAP and the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus should accordingly be limited.

55. We may be subject to surveillance measures, such as the Additional Surveillance Measures (ASM) and the Graded Surveillance Measures (GSM) by the Stock Exchanges which may adversely affect trading price of our Equity Shares.

SEBI and Stock Exchanges in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard interest of investors, have been introducing various enhanced pre-emptive surveillance measures. The main objective of these measures is to alert and advice investors to be extra cautious while dealing in these securities and advice market participants to carry out necessary due diligence while dealing in these securities. Accordingly, SEBI and Stock Exchanges have provided for (a) GSM on securities where such trading price of such securities does not commensurate with financial health and fundamentals such as earnings, book value, fixed assets, net-worth, price per equity multiple and market capitalization; and (b) ASM on securities with surveillance concerns based on objective parameters such as price and volume variation and volatility. On listing, we may be subject to general market conditions which may include significant price and volume fluctuations. The price of our Equity Shares may also fluctuate after the issue due to several factors such as volatility in the Indian and global securities market, our profitability and performance, performance of our competitors, changes in the estimates of our performance or any other political or economic factor. The occurrence of any of the abovementioned factors may trigger the parameters identified by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges for placing securities under the GSM or ASM framework such as net worth and net fixed assets of securities, high low variation in securities, client concentration and close to close price variation. In the event our Equity Shares are subject to such pre-emptive surveillance measures implemented by the Stock Exchange, we may be subject to certain additional restrictions in connection with trading of our Equity Shares such as limiting trading frequency (for example, trading either allowed once in a week or a month) or freezing of price on upper side of trading which may have an adverse effect on the market price of our Equity Shares or may in general cause disruptions in the development of an active trading market for our Equity Shares.

56. After this Issue, the price of the Equity Shares may be highly volatile, or an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop.

The price of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges may fluctuate as a result of the factors, including:

- Volatility in the Indian and global capital market;
- Company's results of operations and financial performance;
- Performance of Company's competitors,
- Adverse media reports on Company or pertaining to our Industry;
- Changes in our estimates of performance or recommendations by financial analysts; and
- Significant developments in India's economic and fiscal policies;

Current valuations may not be sustainable in the future and may also not be reflective of future valuations for our industry and our Company. There has been no public market for Equity Shares and the prices of the Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Issue or that the price at which the Equity Shares are initially traded will correspond to the price at which the Equity Shares will trade in the market subsequent to this Issue.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

57. Financial instability in both Indian and international financial markets could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

The Indian market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, including conditions in the United States, Europe and certain emerging economies in Asia. Financial turmoil in Asia, Russia and elsewhere in the world in recent years has adversely affected the Indian economy. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy and financial sector and us. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby negatively affect the Indian economy. Financial disruptions could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Further, economic developments globally can have a significant impact on our principal markets. Concerns related to a trade war between large economies may lead to increased risk aversion and volatility in global capital markets and consequently have an impact on the Indian economy. Recent developments in the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine has resulted in and may continue to result in a period of sustained instability across global financial markets, induce volatility in commodity prices, increase borrowing costs, cause outflow of capital from emerging markets and may lead to overall slowdown in economic activity in India.

58. We are exposed to risks associated with fluctuation in metal prices or shortages in supply of electric components.

Our manufacturing activities depend on fluctuation in metal prices, being one of the important raw materials and supply of electric components. Changes in macroeconomic conditions generally impact these industries and could negatively impact our business or profitability. Accordingly, our business is highly dependent on the state of development of the Indian economy and the macroeconomic environment prevailing in India. Changes in government policies that may have adverse effect on the development associated industries, may have an adverse impact on our business.

59. If certain labour laws become applicable to us, our profitability may be adversely affected.

India has stringent labour legislations that protect the interests of workers, including legislation that sets forth detailed procedures for dispute resolution and employee removal and legislation that imposes certain financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. Any change or modification in the existing labour laws may affect our flexibility in formulating labour related policies.

60. A slowdown in economic growth in India may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

The performance and growth of our business are necessarily dependent on economic conditions prevalent in India, which may be materially and adversely affected by centre or state political instability or regional conflicts, a general rise in interest rates, inflation, and economic slowdown elsewhere in the world or otherwise. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. India's economic growth is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand and movements in key imports (oil and oil products), global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates and annual rainfall which affects agricultural production. Any continued or future slowdown in the Indian economy or a further increase in inflation could have a material adverse effect on the price of our raw materials and demand for our products and, as a result, on our business and financial results. The Indian financial market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly in emerging market in Asian countries. Financial turmoil in Asia, Europe, the U.S. and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. Although economic conditions are different in each country, investors' reactions to developments in one country can have adverse effects on the securities of companies in other countries, including India. A loss in investor confidence in the financial systems of other emerging markets may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets and, indirectly, in the Indian economy in general. Any worldwide financial instability, including the financial crisis and fluctuations in the stock markets in China and further deterioration of credit conditions in the U.S. or European markets, could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Financial disruptions may occur again and could harm our business and financial results.

61. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties in India, including adverse application of tax laws and regulations, may adversely affect our business and financial performance.

Our business and financial performance could be adversely affected by changes in law or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations in India applicable to us and our business. For further details please refer to the chapter "Government and Other Statutory Approvals" on page 267 for details of the laws currently applicable to us. The governmental and regulatory bodies in India and other jurisdictions where we operate may notify new regulations and/or policies, which may require us to obtain approvals and licenses from the government and other regulatory bodies, or impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations, in addition to those which we are undertaking currently. Any such changes and the related uncertainties with respect to the implementation of new regulations may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. In addition, unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations and investments in our Company by non-residents, could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and/or may require us to apply for additional approvals. Tax and other levies imposed by the central and state governments in India that affect our tax liability include central and state taxes and other levies, income tax, turnover tax, goods and services tax, stamp duty and other special taxes and surcharges which are introduced on a temporary or permanent basis from time to time. The final determination of our tax liabilities involves the interpretation of local tax laws and related regulations in each jurisdiction as well as the significant use of estimates and assumptions regarding the scope of future operations and results achieved and the timing and nature of income earned and expenditures incurred. We are involved in various disputes with tax authorities. For details of these disputes, see "Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments" on page 260. Moreover, any change in Indian tax laws could have an effect on our operations. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

62. Instability in financial markets could materially and adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. The Indian economy and financial markets are significantly influenced by worldwide economic, financial and market conditions.

Any financial turmoil, especially in the United States of America or Europe, may have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Although economic conditions differ in each country, investors' reactions to any significant developments in one country can have adverse effects on the financial and market conditions in other countries. A loss in investor confidence in the financial systems, particularly in other emerging markets, may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets. The global financial turmoil, an outcome of the sub-prime mortgage crisis which originated in the United States of America, led to a loss of investor confidence in worldwide financial markets. Indian financial markets have also experienced the contagion effect of the global financial turmoil, evident from the sharp decline in SENSEX, BSE's benchmark index. Any prolonged financial crisis may have an adverse impact on the Indian economy and us, thereby resulting in a material and adverse effect on our business, operations, financial condition, profitability and price of our Equity Shares.

63. Natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy and cause Our Company's business to suffer.

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunamis, floods etc. In recent years, the extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy. Prolonged spells of abnormal rainfall or other natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations as well as the price of the Equity Shares.

64. Government regulation of foreign ownership of Indian securities may have an adverse effect on the price of the Equity Shares. Foreign ownership of Indian securities is subject to government regulation.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in affect in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the rupees proceeds from the sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/ tax clearance certificate from the Income Tax authorities. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained.

65. Our performance is linked to the stability of policies and the political situation in India.

The Government of India has traditionally exercised, and continues to exercise, a significant influence over many aspects of the economy. Our business, and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares, may be affected by interest rates, changes in government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. Any political instability in India may adversely affect the Indian securities markets in general, which could also adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Any political instability could delay the reform of the Indian economy and could have a material adverse effect on the market for our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance to the investors that these liberalization policies will continue under the newly elected government. Protests against privatization could slow down the pace of liberalization and deregulation. The rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting companies in the ESDM sectors, foreign investment, currency exchange rates and other matters affecting investment in our securities could change as well. A significant change in India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies could disrupt business and economic conditions in India and thereby affect our business.

Particulars	31-Mar-22	31-Mar-23	31-Mar-24	31-Mar-25	31-Mar-26
Debtors (in days)	129.00	52.00	46.00	87.00	88.00
Creditors (in days)	115.00	79.00	42.00	42.00	36.00
Inventories (in days)	87.00	86.00	69.00	74.00	78.00

*Rounded off to nearest day.

Justification:

Debtors	The historical holding days of trade receivables has been 129 days for the FY2022, 52 days for FY2023 and 46 days for FY2024. As per the current credit terms of the company as well as prevalent trend in business of the company, the holding level for debtors anticipated at 87-88 days FY 2024-25 & FY2025-26. The reason for increase in the trade receivable days have been pursuant to the company being moving out of the MSME. Earlier being part of MSME the company was enjoying a credit term of approximately 45-50 days from its customer but now due to increase in turnover the company will not be able to have the benefit of MSME and the credit period will increase from 45-50 days to 87-88 days. Also, the company currently avail the benefit of bill discounting available to MSME which will stop due to the increase in turnover.
Creditors	Past trend of trade payable has been between the ranges of 42 to 115 days in the last three financial years. However, the company intends to reduce trade payable in the range of 42 days for FY 2024-25 and 36 days for FY2025-26 to avail cash discount as well as competitive purchase price to increase overall profitability of the company. Further, in order to company with the MSMED Act & Income Tax Act, the company will strive to maintain the trade payable days below 45 days. Secondly major raw material of our industry is Copper, Aluminium, Steel which are all commodity market and we will make advance payment in order to get better prices and discounts.
Inventories	The historical holding days of Inventories has been in range of 69 to 87 days in the last three financial years. Company estimates inventories holding days to be 74 days in FY 2024-25 and 78 days in FY2025-26. The same seems to be reasonable as well as acceptable in view of lead time for procurement of raw material and the production process and completion of the Finished goods. Further, pursuant to the increased capital expenditure undertaken the minimum inventory requirement level of the company will increase.

ANNEXURE TO THE STATEMENT OF SPECIAL TAX BENEFITS

The information provided below sets out the special tax benefits available to the Company, its Material Subsidiary and the Equity Shareholders under the Income Tax Act, 1961 presently in force in India. It is not exhaustive or comprehensive and is not intended to be a substitute for professional advice. Investors are advised to consult their own tax consultant with respect to the tax implications of an investment in Equity Shares particularly in view of the fact that certain recently enacted legislation may not have a direct legal precedent or may have a different interpretation on the benefits, which an investor can avail.

A. SPECIAL DIRECT AND INDIRECT TAX BENEFITS TO THE COMPANY:

The Company is not entitled to any special tax benefits under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and GST Act.

B. SPECIAL DIRECT AND INDIRECT TAX BENEFITS TO THE MATERIAL SUBSIDIARY:

The Company is not entitled to any special tax benefits under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and GST Act

C. SPECIAL DIRECT AND INDIRECT TAX BENEFITS TO THE SHAREHOLDERS:

The Shareholders of the Company are not entitled to any special tax benefits under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and GST Act.

NOTES:

1. The above Annexure of special tax benefits sets out the provisions of Tax Laws in a summary manner only and is not a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposal of shares.
2. The above Annexure covers only the special tax benefits under the Act, read with the relevant rules, circulars and notifications and does not cover any benefit under any other law in force in India. This Annexure also does not discuss any tax consequences, in the country outside India, of an investment in the shares of an Indian company.
3. The above Annexure of special tax benefits is as per the current direct tax laws relevant for the assessment year 2024-25. Several of these benefits are dependent on the Company or its shareholders fulfilling the conditions prescribed under the relevant provisions of the Tax Laws.
4. In respect of non-residents, the tax rates and consequent taxation mentioned above will be further subject to any benefits available under the relevant Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement, if any, entered into between India and the country in which the non-resident has fiscal domicile.
5. A new Section 115BAA has been inserted by the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 2019 ('the Amendment Act, 2019') with effect from Financial Year 2019-20 granting an option to domestic companies to compute corporate tax at a reduced rate of 25.168% (22% plus surcharge of 10% and cess of 4%), provided such companies do not avail specified exemptions/ incentives. The option under section 115BAA of the Act once exercised cannot be subsequently withdrawn for any future financial year. The Amendment Act, 2019 further provides that domestic companies availing such option will not be required to pay Minimum Alternate Tax ('MAT') under Section 115JB. The CBDT has further issued Circular 29/2019 dated October 02, 2019 clarifying that since the MAT provisions under Section 115JB itself would not apply where a domestic company exercises option of lower tax rate under Section 115BAA, MAT credit would not be available.

In such a case, the Company is not allowed to claim any of the following deductions/ exemptions under the Act: -

- ✓ Deduction under the provisions of Section 10AA.
 - ✓ Deduction under clause (iia) of sub- section (1) of Section 32 (additional depreciation).
 - ✓ Deduction under section 32AD or Section 33AB or Section 33ABA
 - ✓ Deduction under section 35AD or Section 35CCC
 - ✓ Deduction under section 80G
6. Lower corporate tax rate under Section 115BAA of the Act and Minimum Alternate Tax ('MAT') credit under section 115JAA of the Act which are in general available and hence may not be treated as special tax benefits.

7. The Company has evaluated and decided to exercise the option permitted under Section 115BAA of the Act for the purpose of computing its income-tax liability for the Financial Year 2021-22 to Financial Year 2023-24.
8. This Annexure is intended only to provide general information to the investors and is neither designed nor intended to be a substitute for professional tax advice. In view of the individual nature of tax consequences, each investor is advised to consult his or her tax advisor with respect to specific tax consequences of his/her investment in the shares of the Company.
9. For the purpose of reporting here, we have not considered the general tax benefits available to the company or shareholders.
10. The above statement covers only certain relevant direct tax law benefits and indirect tax law benefits or benefit.
11. No assurance is given that the revenue authorities/ courts will concur with the views expressed herein. The views are based on the existing provisions of law and its interpretation, which are subject to changes from time to time. We do not assume responsibility to update the views consequent to such changes. We shall not be liable to any claims, liabilities or expenses relating to this assignment except to the extent of fees relating to this assignment, as finally judicially determined to have resulted primarily from bad faith or intentional misconduct. We will not be liable to any other person in respect of this statement.

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

The global economy is stabilizing, following several years of negative shocks. Global growth is projected to hold steady at 2.6 percent this year, despite flaring geopolitical tensions and high interest rates, before edging up to 2.7 percent in 2025-26 alongside modest expansions of trade and investment. Global inflation is expected to moderate at a slower clip than previously assumed, averaging 3.5 percent this year. Central banks in both advanced economies and emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs) are likely to remain cautious in easing policy. As such, markedly higher interest rates than prior to the pandemic are set to sustain for an extended period. Despite some improvement, the outlook remains subdued. Global growth over the forecast horizon is expected to be nearly half a percentage point below its 2010-19 average, with a slower pace of expansion in economies comprising over 80 percent of the global population. EMDE growth is projected to moderate from 4.2 percent in 2023 to 4 percent in 2024. Amid heightened conflict and violence, prospects remain especially lackluster in many vulnerable economies—over half of fragile and conflict-affected economies will still be poorer in 2024 than on the eve of the pandemic. Risks have become more balanced but remain tilted to the downside. Escalating geopolitical tensions could lead to volatile commodity prices. In a context of elevated trade policy uncertainty, further trade fragmentation risks additional disruptions to trade networks. More persistent inflation could lead to higher-for-longer interest rates. Other risks include weaker-than anticipated activity in key economies and disasters related to climate change. Against this backdrop, policy makers face daunting challenges. Global efforts are needed to safeguard trade, support green and digital transitions, deliver debt relief, and improve food security. Still-pronounced inflation risks underscore the need for EMDE monetary policies to remain focused on price stability. High debt and elevated debt-servicing costs will require EMDE policy makers to balance sizable investment needs with fiscal sustainability. To meet development goals, policies are needed to raise productivity growth, improve the efficiency of public investment, build human capital, and close gender gaps in the labour market.

Domestic demand is projected to improve in many EMDEs this year, in line with a moderate cyclical recovery from the effects of high inflation, tight financial conditions, and anemic industrial activity. Aggregate EMDE growth is nonetheless poised to decelerate slightly mainly because of idiosyncratic factors in some large economies. Moreover, significant challenges persist in vulnerable economies—including in low-income countries (LICs) and those facing elevated levels of conflict and violence—where growth prospects have deteriorated markedly since January. Global trade growth is recovering, supported by a pickup in goods trade. Services-trade growth is expected to provide less of a tailwind this year, given that tourism has nearly recovered to pre-pandemic levels. However, the trade outlook remains lackluster compared to recent decades, partly reflecting a proliferation of trade-restrictive measures and elevated trade policy uncertainty. Aggregate commodity prices have increased since late last year. Amid fluctuations, average oil prices are expected to be slightly higher in 2024 than in 2023, underpinned by a tight demand-supply balance in a context of continued geopolitical tensions. Nonetheless, average energy prices are projected to be marginally lower this year than last—reflecting notable declines in prices for natural gas and coal—while remaining well above pre-pandemic levels. Metals prices are expected to be little changed over the forecast horizon, as demand related to metals-intensive clean energy investments and a broader pickup in global industrial activity attenuate the impact on commodity demand of declining real estate activity in China. Well-supplied markets for grains and other agricultural commodities should see edible food crop prices decline modestly.

Inflation continues to wane globally, making progress toward central bank targets in advanced economies and EMDEs, but at a slower pace than previously expected. Core inflation has remained stubbornly high in many economies, supported by rapid growth of services prices. Over the remainder of 2024, continued tight monetary policy stances and slowing wage increases should help reduce inflation further. By the end of 2026, global inflation is expected to settle at an average rate of 2.8 percent, broadly consistent with central bank targets.

Contribution to global growth

Global Consumer Price Inflation

Risks to the outlook are somewhat more balanced but remain skewed to the downside. Pronounced trade policy uncertainty—already at its highest level compared with other years of major elections since 2000—could portend further trade restrictions and weigh on global trade. Advanced economy interest rates are expected to remain well above 2000-19 average levels and could turn out higher still if inflationary pressures persist, substantially slowing global growth. Conflict-related oil supply disruptions could raise oil prices, dampen economic activity, and undermine the disinflation process. EMDE fiscal policy makers confront exacting trade-offs, given elevated borrowing costs and large financing needs. Improving public investment efficiency in EMDEs is crucial, especially given constrained fiscal space.

Global Trade Policy uncertainty in years economies.

Monetary policy interest rates in advanced with major elections.

Global trade in goods and services was nearly flat in 2023—the weakest performance outside of global recessions in the past 50 years. Amid a sharp slowdown in global industrial production, the volume of goods trade contracted for most of 2023 and fell by 1.9 percent for the year as a whole. The evolution of goods trade diverged across regions, with volumes declining in advanced economies, especially in Europe, and stagnating in EMDEs as expansions in China and Europe and Central Asia (ECA) offset contractions in Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC), Sub-Saharan Africa (SSA), and Middle East and North Africa (MNA). The value of global services trade grew about 9 percent in 2023, driven primarily by a recovery in tourism flows—exports of travel services surged by about 38 percent (WTO 2024). However, the pace of expansion in tourism was substantially below that in 2022, with recent data indicating tourism activity in line with pre-pandemic levels, suggesting a near-full recovery in most regions. Stabilization in services trade is reflected in the steadying of the global services PMI for new export orders, which has remained closer to neutral thresholds compared to last year.

The number of new trade-restricting measures is still well above pre-pandemic levels—although down from the historical high reached in 2023— exerting a further drag on global trade. Recent attacks on commercial vessels in the Red Sea, coupled with climate-related shipping disruptions in the Panama Canal, have affected maritime transit and freight rates along these critical routes. These disruptions, however, have not yet led to a substantial increase in global supply chain pressures or lengthened global supplier delivery times. Adverse effects have been limited to a few regions and specific industries so far. Global trade growth is projected to pick up to 2.5 percent this year, a significant improvement from last year but well below the average rates observed in the two decades preceding the pandemic. The forecast entails a pickup in goods trade growth after a sluggish start to the year, supported by a rebound in global goods demand as inventory restocking resumes in the United States and the euro area, and as demand from China stabilizes. Meanwhile, services trade growth is expected to stabilize near its pre-pandemic pace. In 2025, trade growth is expected to firm to 3.4 percent, in tandem with a pickup in growth in the euro area and EMDEs excluding China, and remain steady in 2026.

Global inflation has continued to decline, yet it remains above target in most advanced economies and in about one-fourth of inflation-targeting EMDEs. The initial phase of disinflation after the pandemic was underpinned by falling energy prices as well as waning supply chain pressures. Recently, the pace of consumer price disinflation has slowed, reflecting a partial rebound in energy prices, along with a notable slowdown in the rate of decline in core inflation (figure A). In advanced economies, disinflation in consumer goods prices appears to have bottomed out, while inflation in consumer services remains elevated (figure B). In the United States, resilient economic activity, alongside rapid increases in the cost of shelter, has given rise to persistently high services and, more broadly, core inflation over the past few months. To some extent, the strength of U.S. productivity growth has mitigated these trends, likely lessening the inflationary effects of rising wages. In contrast, subdued productivity in the euro area has driven economy-wide labour costs higher, underpinning elevated core and services inflation, despite anemic euro area demand.

Global financial conditions have eased, on balance, since last year, primarily reflecting declines in risk premia amid still-elevated interest rates. Central banks across major advanced economies are expected to gradually lower policy rates this year, but the level of real interest rates is set to remain a headwind to economic activity—albeit a diminishing one—for some time. Policy rate projections derived from financial markets have been volatile since U.S. policy tightening started in 2022, with expectations repeatedly revised higher over time. Meanwhile, most advanced-economy central banks continue to emphasize that the pace of easing will be cautious, reflecting persistent inflationary pressures—and, in the case of the United States, robust economic activity. As such, government bond yields are well above pre-pandemic levels and are likely to remain so, absent large negative shocks to growth. Risk appetite picked up globally early in the year, particularly in advanced economies signalling optimism that continued steady disinflation might accompany resilient growth. With volatility subdued, advanced economy equity valuations reached elevated levels, especially in the United States, where confidence regarding potential productivity gains from AI played a key role. Sentiment briefly wilted in April, amid firm U.S. inflation data and escalating geopolitical tensions, but rebounded thereafter. Although the cost of credit remains high, perceptions of corporate credit risk appear muted except for asset classes, such as office real estate, that have been adversely affected by structural post-pandemic shifts in activity. Corporate credit spreads remain well below 2010-19 average levels in both the United States and the euro area. Banks in these jurisdictions continue to report tightening of standards for lending to firms, but by markedly narrowing majorities.

EMDE financial conditions also eased in the first quarter of 2024, reflecting expectations of easing advanced-economy monetary conditions, improving global investor sentiment, and ongoing policy rate cuts in many large EMDEs. Conditions turned less accommodative early in the second quarter, as safe haven flows and declining expectations of U.S. rate cuts stoked a notable strengthening of the U.S. dollar and a bout of debt and equity portfolio outflows. Sovereign spreads have nonetheless trended to below 2010-19 levels in the majority of middle income EMDEs, signalling investor confidence that financial stress risks are broadly contained. In contrast, spreads remain elevated among EMDEs with weak credit ratings, even if they have declined substantially this year. Indeed, despite some easing of global conditions, financial stress concerns remain acute in about 40 percent of EMDEs—comprising those with weak credit ratings, and those where debt sustainability analyses indicate a high risk of, or existing, debt distress. Among weakly rated countries that had market access in the 2010s, a combination of political instability, the pandemic and other external shocks, and financial crises in the 2020s has rendered non-concessional debt prohibitively expensive. Among unrated countries—many of them low-income countries—debt burdens have grown increasingly severe owing to a decade of debt build-up in the 2010s, coupled with anemic post-pandemic recoveries and rising debt-service costs (World Bank 2023a).

INDIAN ECONOMY OVERVIEW

The Indian economy is on a strong wicket and stable footing, demonstrating resilience in the face of geopolitical challenges. The Indian economy has consolidated its post-Covid recovery with policymakers – fiscal and monetary – ensuring economic and financial stability. Nonetheless, change is the only constant for a country with high growth aspirations. For the recovery to be sustained, there has to be heavy lifting on the domestic front because the environment has become extraordinarily difficult to reach agreements on key global issues such as trade, investment and climate.

High economic growth in FY24 came on the heels of growth rates of 9.7% and 7.0%, respectively, in the previous two financial years. The headline inflation rate is largely under control, although the inflation rate of some specific food items is elevated. The trade deficit was lower in FY24 than in FY23, and the current account deficit for the year is around 0.7% of GDP. In fact, the current account registered a surplus in the last quarter of the financial year. Foreign exchange reserves are ample. Public investment has sustained capital formation in the last several years even as the private sector shed its balance sheet blues and began investing in FY22. Now, it has to receive the baton from the public sector and sustain the investment momentum in the economy. The signs are encouraging. National income data show that non-financial private-sector capital formation, measured in current prices, expanded vigorously in FY22 and FY23 after a decline in FY21. However, investment in machinery and equipment declined for two consecutive years, FY20 and FY21, before rebounding strongly. Early corporate sector data for FY24 suggest that capital formation in the private sector continued to expand but at a slower rate.

National income data show that non-financial private-sector capital formation, measured in current prices, expanded vigorously in FY22 and FY23 after a decline in FY21. However, investment in machinery and equipment declined for two consecutive years, FY20 and FY21, before rebounding strongly. Early corporate sector data for FY24 suggest that capital formation in the private sector continued to expand but at a slower rate.

The Indian economy recovered swiftly from the pandemic, with its real GDP in FY24 being 20 per cent higher than the pre-COVID, FY20 levels. This meant a CAGR of 4.6 per cent from FY20, despite a 5.8 per cent decline in FY21 inflicted by the pandemic. Analysis in this chapter shows that the current GDP level is close to the pre-pandemic trajectory in Q4FY24. During the decade ending FY20, India grew at an average annual rate of 6.6 per cent, more or less reflecting the long-run growth prospects of the economy. This is the background against which we can see the prospects for FY25.

IMF projects the global economy to grow at 3.2 per cent in 2024, with risks being broadly balanced. The average annual global growth was 3.7 per cent during the decade ending FY20. Inflationary pressures have moderated in most economies with declining global commodity prices and easing of supply chain pressures. However, core inflation remains sticky and driven by high service inflation. Many central banks have hinted at the peaking of the interest rate hike cycle. The ECB has already cut the policy rate, while the Fed has hinted at reducing the rate in 2024. If the services inflation across economies moderates faster, that may allow central banks to bring forward the monetary policy easing cycle earlier than currently anticipated. A likely reduction in policy rates by central banks of AEs, especially the Fed, will open the space for central banks of EMEs to follow the lead, bringing down the cost of capital.

On the downside, any escalation of geopolitical conflicts in 2024 may lead to supply dislocations, higher commodity prices, reviving inflationary pressures and stalling monetary policy easing with potential repercussions for capital flows. This can also influence RBI's monetary policy stance. The global trade outlook for 2024 remains positive, with merchandise trade expected to pick up after registering a contraction in volumes in 2023. Conversely, increased fragmentation along geopolitical lines and renewed thrust on protectionism may distort merchandise trade growth, impacting India's external sector. Global financial markets have scaled new heights, with investors betting on global economic expansion. However, any corrections in the elevated financial market valuations may have ramifications for household finances and corporate valuation, negatively impacting growth prospects. Hiring in the information technology sector had slowed down considerably in FY24, and even if hiring does not decline further, it is unlikely to pick up significantly. However, leveraging the initiatives taken by the government and capturing the untapped potential in emerging markets, exports of business, consultancy and IT-enabled services can expand. Despite the core inflation rate being around 3 per cent, the RBI, with one eye on the withdrawal of accommodation and another on the US Fed, has kept interest rates unchanged for quite some time, and the anticipated easing has been delayed.

Domestic growth drivers have supported economic growth in FY24 despite uncertain global economic performance. Improved balance sheets will help the private sector cater to strong investment demand. A note of caution is warranted here. Private capital formation after good growth in the last three years may turn slightly more cautious because of fears of cheaper

POWER SECTOR IN INDIA

Power is among the most critical components of infrastructure, crucial for the economic growth and welfare of nations. The existence and development of adequate power infrastructure is essential for sustained growth of the Indian economy. The fundamental principle of India's power industry has been to provide universal access to affordable power in a sustainable way. The Ministry of Power has made significant efforts over the past few years to turn the country from one with a power shortage to one with a surplus by establishing a single national grid, fortifying the distribution network, and achieving universal household electrification.

India's power sector is one of the most diversified in the world. Sources of power generation range from conventional sources such as coal, lignite, natural gas, oil, hydro and nuclear power, to viable non-conventional sources such as wind, solar, agricultural, and domestic waste. Electricity demand in the country has increased rapidly and is expected to rise further in the years to come. In order to meet the increasing demand for electricity in the country, massive addition to the installed generating capacity is required.

India was ranked fourth in wind power capacity and solar power capacity and fourth in renewable power installed capacity, as of 2021. India is the only country among the G20 nations that is on track to achieve the targets under the Paris Agreement.

Latest developments/ Investments taking place in Power Industry

- Cumulative FDI inflow in the power sector stood at US$ 18.28 billion between April 2000-March 2024.
- From April 2020 to September 2023, the renewable energy sector in India attracted US$ 6.1 billion in FDI equity investment.
- India has received a cumulative amount of US$ 3.8 billion in foreign direct investment (FDI) in the solar energy sector over the past three fiscal years and the ongoing fiscal year until September 2023.
- India ranked fourth in the list of countries to make significant investments in renewable energy by allotting US$ 77.7 billion between 2015 and 2022.
- In FY24 (until November 2023), the power generation in India was 1,176.13 BU.
- India's electricity generation from renewable and non-renewable sources for FY21, FY22, and FY23 was 1,373.08 BU, 1,484.36 BU, and 1,617.72 BU, respectively.
- The power generation industry in India will require a total investment of Rs. 33 lakh crore (US$ 400 billion) and 3.78 million power professionals by 2032 to meet the rising energy demands, as per the National Electricity Plan 2022-32.

SOURCES OF POWER WITH SHARES IN TOTAL INSTALLED CAPACITY

RENEWABLE

Solar energy is the largest renewable energy source in India. Projects like the Jawaharlal Nehru National Solar Mission are creating a positive environment among investors keen to make use of India's potential. There are plans to set up four solar power plants of 1 GW each. As of January 2023, India had 135.12 GW of renewable energy sources (RES) capacity (excluding large hydro).

HYDRO

With a large swathe of rivers and water bodies, India has enormous potential for hydropower generation. As of January 31, 2024, India's hydro power generating capacity stood at 46.93 GW.

NUCLEAR

As of January 31, 2024, India had 7.48 GW of installed nuclear capacity. With one of the world's largest reserves of thorium, India has huge potential in nuclear energy generation.

ELECTRICITY DEMAND AROUND THE WORLD.

By 2025, for the first time in history, Asia will account for half of the world’s electricity consumption and one-third of global electricity will be consumed in China. Over the outlook period, global electricity demand is set to grow at an accelerated pace, by an annualised 3%, as electricity consumption increases in emerging markets and developing economies (EMDEs), led by the People’s Republic of China (hereafter “China”), India and Southeast Asia.

As the energy crisis abates, global electricity demand growth is set to rise from 2.6% in 2023 to an average 3.2% in 2024-2025. This stronger growth is well above the pre-pandemic rate of 2.4% observed in the 2015-2019 period. Indeed, by 2025 demand will increase by 2 500 TWh from 2022 levels, which means that over the next three years the electricity consumption added each year is roughly equivalent to that of the United Kingdom and Germany combined. More than half of the increase will come from China. The remaining growth will largely take place in India and Southeast Asia.

In China, electricity demand growth was subdued on weaker economic activity in 2022, rising at an estimated 2.6%, and significantly below its trend of 5.4% in 2015-2019. China is by far the world’s largest electricity consumer at 31% of global demand in 2022. For 2023-2025 we expect an average annual growth of 5.2%.

In India, the robust post-pandemic recovery continued to support strong electricity demand of over 8.4% in 2022, which was substantially higher than the average annual growth rate of 5.3% seen in the 2015-2019 period. The peak summer season also arrived early in 2022, resulting in the hottest March in over a century. Electricity demand from March to July was 12% higher than the same period in 2021. For the 2023-2025 period, we expect slightly slower growth, averaging 5.6% per year.

Electricity demand in the European Union (EU) fell 3.5% in 2022, with spiking electricity prices, demand destruction in electricity intensive industries, energy saving measures and a mild winter all contributing to the decline. We expect EU demand to grow by around 1.4% on average in 2023-2025.

In the United States, electricity demand rose by 2.6% in 2022, surpassing pre-Covid levels. But an expected economic slowdown in 2023 is expected to lead to a decline of about 0.6%, before returning to growth of 1.2% in 2024 and 1.3% in 2025.

In Africa, electricity demand rose by 1.5% in 2022, with growth tempered by both lofty energy prices and high inflation rates. Our 2023-2025 outlook for the region shows much stronger growth of an average 4.1%, led by a post-crisis economic recovery.

Out to 2025, more than 70% of the growth in global electricity demand is set to come from China, India and Southeast Asia combined

Business Process Flow

Transformer Manufacturing process

- Incoming Raw Material and Inspection - This step involve the receipt of raw materials like Cold Rolled Grain Oriented (CRGO) Electrical Steel, Copper Wire, Copper Strip, Copper sheet and Aluminium Wire, Strip, Sheet, Mild Steel, Transformer Oil and Relays etc. Post the receipt of these input materials we undertake the inspection of the different components for the desired quality and confirmation with the customers and regulatory requirements.
- Winding - Winding is an integral step in electrical systems, used to step up or step down voltage levels. Winding involves preparing coils of wire that carry the electrical current and generate the magnetic fields required for the transformation process. These coils are generally made of copper or aluminium wire or strips based on the customer's requirements, which are then coated with an insulating material to prevent short circuits.

- Core Assembly – The core assembly of a transformer is a critical component that supports the efficient transfer of electrical energy between the primary and secondary windings. The core is usually constructed from thin sheets or laminations of magnetic material i.e. Cold Rolled Grain Oriented (CRGO) Electrical Steel. During this process, these CRGO laminations are stacked and assembled to form the core.
- Assembly – During this step the coil winding and the core assembly prepared during the previous steps are assembled to form the transformers.
- Dehydration/ ovening – This step ensures that the core and windings of a transformer is kept free from moisture to prevent insulation degradation, core corrosion, and efficiency losses. The core is placed in a vacuum chamber to remove moisture. The reduced pressure lowers the boiling point of water, facilitating faster moisture removal.
- Tanking - The tank is filled with insulating oil, which serves multiple purposes like insulation, cooling, degassing & filtering. Once the core is inserted and the tank is filled next step is to seal the transformer to prevent any leakage and ensure that the oil remains uncontaminated. Leak testing is conducted to ensure that there are no leaks in the tank.
- Testing & Dispatch – Before the dispatch of the transformers various tests are conducted to ensure the proper working of the transformers. These tests help to ensure that the insulation resistance is within acceptable limits and that the transformer is functioning correctly. Many times, depending on the requirements of the customers, the transformers manufactured are independently tested by the customers or tested by independent labs as nominated by the customers to ensure proper working and quality.

Control Relay Panels Manufacturing process

- Fabrication: This is the stage where Mild Steel CRCA Sheets of various thickness are cut, bend and weld together to form the parts of the Cabinet of the Control Relay Panel using CNC Shearing, Bending & Plasma Cutting Machines & Mig/Arc Welding Machines.
- Pre-Treatment & Powder Coating : This is the stage where the fabricated parts of the cabinet undergo pre-treatment process of Phosphating by dipping in tanks chemicals & water which makes the mild steel surface clean and free from dirt & grease and make it suitable for powder coating. In the next step, powder is sprayed on to the surface and then its baked in oven to get the Powder Coated parts of the Cabinet.
- Cabinet Assembly : Here the various powder coated parts of the cabinet are assembled together using nuts & bolts to make the body/cabinet of the Control Relay Panel.
- Fitting & Module Assembly & Cabinet Inner/Outer Fitting : The various fittings such as Relays, Annunciators, Meters, Indicators, Control Switches, etc of the Control Relay Panel are placed in different positions of the cabinet.

- Inter-Connection Wiring : the added fittings are connected or wired to each other depending on the single line diagram of the Control Relay Panel.
- Final Testing & Dispatch : CRP is tested for complete functionality of individual fittings & combined operations using test equipments such as Relay Test Kit, etc followed by programming of the Relays. Post this the Control Relay Panel is packed as per the mode of transport and destination and dispatched.

5. The Indian Contract Act, 1872

The Indian Contract Act, 1872 (“Contract Act”) lays down the essentials of a valid contract, it provides a framework of rules and regulations that govern the validity, execution and performance of a contract and codifies the way in which a contract may be entered into, executed, implementation of the provisions of a contract and effects of breach of a contract. The Contract Act consists of limiting factors subject to which contract may be entered into, executed and the breach enforced. The contracting parties themselves decide the rights and duties of parties and terms of agreement.

6. The Specific Relief Act, 1963

The Specific Relief Act, 1963 (“Specific Relief Act”) is complimentary to the provisions of the Contract Act and the Transfer of Property Act, as the Act applies both to movable property and immovable property. The Specific Relief Act applies in cases where the Court can order specific performance of a contract. Specific relief can be granted only for purpose of enforcing individual civil rights and not for the mere purpose of enforcing a civil law. Specific performance’ means Court will order the party to perform his part of agreement, instead of imposing on him any monetary liability to pay damages to other party.

7. Competition Act, 2002

The Competition Act, 2002 (“Competition Act”) aims to prevent anti-competitive practices that cause or are likely to cause an appreciable adverse effect on competition in the relevant market in India. The Competition Act regulates anti-competitive agreements, abuse of dominant position and combinations. The Competition Commission of India (“Competition Commission”) which became operational from May 20, 2009, has been established under the Competition Act to deal with inquiries relating to anti-competitive agreements and abuse of dominant position and regulate combinations. The Competition Act also provides that the Competition Commission has the jurisdiction to inquire into and pass orders in relation to an anti-competitive agreement, abuse of dominant position or a combination, which even though entered into, arising, or taking place outside India or signed between one or more non-Indian parties, but causes an appreciable adverse effect in the relevant market in India.

8. Legislations pertaining to Stamp Duty

Stamp duty in relation to certain specified categories of instruments as specified under Entry 91 of the list, is governed by the provisions of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (“Stamp Act”) which is enacted by the Central Government. All others instruments are required to be stamped, as per the rates prescribed by the respective State Governments in the respective schedules of the respective legislations pertaining to stamp duty as applicable in the State. Stamp duty is required to be paid on all the documents that are registered and as stated above the percentage of stamp duty payable varies from one State to another. Certain State in India have enacted their own legislation in relation to stamp duty while the other State have adopted and amended the Stamp Act, as per the rates applicable in the State. On such instruments stamp duty is payable at the rates specified in Schedule I of the Stamp Act. Instruments chargeable to duty under the Stamp Act which are not duly stamped are incapable of being admitted in court as evidence of the transaction contained therein. The Stamp Act also provides for impounding of instruments which are not sufficiently stamped or not stamped at all. Unstamped and deficiently stamped instruments can be impounded by the authority and validated by payment of penalty. The amount of penalty payable on such instruments may vary from State to State.

F. REGULATIONS REGARDING FOREIGN INVESTMENT

Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999

Foreign investment in India is governed by the provisions of Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 (“FEMA”), as amended, along with the rules, regulations and notifications made by the Reserve Bank of India thereunder, The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (“DPIIT”), Ministry of Commerce and Industry has issued the Consolidated FDI Policy which consolidates the policy framework on Foreign Direct Investment (“FDI Policy”), with effect from October 15, 2020. The FDI Policy consolidates and subsumes all the press notes, press releases, and clarifications on FDI issued by DIPP till October 15, 2020.

In terms of the FDI Policy, foreign investment is permitted (except in the prohibited sectors) in Indian companies either through the automatic route or the Government route, depending upon the sector in which foreign investment is sought to be made. In terms of the FDI Policy, the work of granting government approval for foreign investment under the FDI Policy and the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Rules, 2019 has now been entrusted to the concerned Administrative Ministries/Departments. FDI for the items or activities that cannot be brought in under the automatic route may be brought in through the approval route. Where FDI is allowed on an automatic basis without the approval of the Government, the RBI would continue to be the primary agency for the purposes of monitoring and regulating foreign investment. In cases where Government approval is obtained, no approval of the RBI is required except with respect to fixing the issuance price, although a declaration in the prescribed form, detailing the foreign investment, must be filed with the RBI once the foreign investment is made in the Indian company.

Our Company is engaged in the activity of manufacturing of transformers, panels, sub-station automation systems and related equipment. The FDI Policy issued by the DIPP permits foreign investment up to 100% in the manufacturing sector under the automatic route. No approvals of the Administrative Ministries/Departments or the RBI are required for such allotment of equity Shares under this Issue. Our Company will be required to make certain filings with the RBI after the completion of the Issue.

SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2022/51 dated April 20, 2022, and the provisions of this circular are deemed to form part of this Prospectus. Furthermore, pursuant to SEBI circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/P/CIR/P/2022/45 dated April 5, 2022, all individual Investors in initial public Issue (opening on or after May 1, 2022) whose application sizes are up to ₹ 500,000 shall use the UPI Mechanism.

Furthermore, SEBI vide press release bearing number 12/2023 has approved the proposal for reducing the time period for listing of shares in public Issue from existing 6 working days to 3 working days from the date of the closure of the Issue. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circulars and the Previous UPI Circulars have introduced the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase has become applicable from January 1, 2019 until March 31, 2019 or floating of five main board public Issues, whichever is later. The time duration from public Issue closure to listing continued to be three Working Days.

Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019 and was to initially continue for a period of three months or floating of five main board public Issues, whichever is later. Subsequently, it was decided to extend the timeline for implementation of Phase II until March 31, 2020. Further, as per SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, the current Phase II of Unified Payments Interface with Application Supported by Blocked Amount is continued till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the ASBA Form by RIIs through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI payment mechanism. However, the time duration from public Issue closure to listing continues to be three Working Days during this phase.

The Issue shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Notification as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by the SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process: Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue; it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20 to ₹24 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹22.00 in the above example. The Issuer, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

The DPIIT also issues the Consolidated Foreign Direct Investment Policy (“FDI Policy”) from time to time. The regulatory framework pertaining to foreign investment, over a period of time, thus, consists of acts, regulations, master circulars, press notes, press releases, and clarifications among other amendments.

India’s current FDI Policy issued by the DPIIT with effect from October 15, 2020, consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT till October 15, 2020. All the press notes, press releases, clarifications on FDI issued by DPIIT till October 15, 2020 stand rescinded as on October 15, 2020. In terms of the FDI Policy, Foreign investment is permitted (except in the prohibited sectors) in Indian companies either through the automatic route or the Government route, depending upon the sector in which foreign investment is sought to be made. In terms of the FDI Policy, the work of granting government approval for foreign investment under the FDI Policy and FEMA Regulations has now been entrusted to the concerned Administrative Ministries/Departments.
